

SECURITY - DEVELOPMENT - TRANSITION MULTI NATIONAL FORCE - WEST

Oct. 31, 2008

CAMP FALLUJAH, Iraq -- Master Sgt. William "Spanky" Gibson (pictured as a Gunnery Sgt.), force fires chief, Multi National Force - West, stands at the Pentagon press room podium in November 2006.

From combat to Congress

By Cpl. Sean P. McGinty

CAMP FALLUJAH, Iraq – During a speech on the five-year anniversary of Operation Iraqi Freedom, President George W. Bush said with Americans like ‘Spanky’ Gibson serving on our side, the enemy in Iraq doesn’t have a chance.

Now, after nine-months in Iraq, Master Sgt. William “Spanky” Gibson is headed to Washington D.C. to represent the Marine Corps in the halls of Congress.

Gibson was one of three staff non-commissioned officers selected for the inaugural Marine staff non-commissioned officer Congressional Fellowship. According to a recent Marine ... Click for more...

STORIES FROM THE FRONT

I MHG STORIES

I MHG makes FY08 re-enlistment mission, Corps expands

By Cpl. GP Ingersoll

RCT - 1 STORIES

Roots of transition

By Lance Cpl. Scott Schmidt

RCT - 5 STORIES

Infantry Marines supplement security platoon

By Sgt. M. Trent Lowry

MNF-W STORIES

Combat logistics Marines create new view of Fallujah

By Cpl. Daniel Angel

Ramadi meetings key to city’s success

By Lance Cpl. Jerry Murphy

Surgeon Takes the Reins on Economic Development in Rural Iraq

By Capt. Paul Greenberg

Ramadi children to receive donated school books

By Lance Cpl. Achilles Tsantarliotis

Warlords turnover Camp Al Qaim

By Lance Cpl. Joshua Murray